

Please postpone the June 2 meeting so that there can be more public input. THEN, please listen to the public input; the airwaves belong to all of us. If you proceed with the meeting and change the laws without sharing them with the public in advance, you will be overstepping your authority and Congress should intervene.